ERP/FINANCIAL SYSTEMS IMPLEMENTATION

An Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) system implementation can be one of the most strategic, transformative, and beneficial project an organization undertakes. It can also be the most risky from an investment/return and business interruption perspective.

As the key financial executive you may find yourself with the organizational responsibility for 'getting it done.' Are you ready?

With over 15 years of experience in the ERP space, AC Lordi can help. While AC Lordi doesn't align itself with any one particular ERP product, or install or configure ERP software, we do provide the implementation services that can make or break an ERP implementation. These include:

- Needs Assessment and Value Proposition
- System Selection and Vendor Selection
- Program and Project Management
- Business Process Blueprinting
- Designing and Administering of Unit and System Testing
- Finance Role Backfill
- Benefits Realization
- Ongoing Process Support
